Perched on the western tip of the Peninsula, cozy Lunada Bay is known for its spectacular views of the South Bay and majestic houses. Just off Palos Verdes Drive West near Yarmouth Road is the small, charming commercial district of the neighborhood.

Poppi Boutique (1) has been a staple of the center for a few years. The designer clothing store offers chic fashions for the active but stylish local woman. Next door, Doll House & Monsters (2) dresses up your child or teen in the latest trends and styles. Also on this stretch you'll find Lemons & Sugar (3), one of our favorite places to find a last-minute gift. In addition to providing unique and handmade items with a focus on local artists, owner Lis also hosts art and other classes in the studio regularly. (2325 Palos Verdes Drive West)

Blue (4), a recent arrival to the area, features both men's and women's casual wear and accessories for every season. (2201 Via Anacapa)

Annie's Boutique (5), like Lemons & Sugar, fills their shelves and racks mostly with items by local designers. Check out Annie's amazing collection of fashion and home décor with a South Bay sensibility. (722 Yarmouth Road)

Saint Honore French Bakery (6) makes a welcome lunch stop with its sunny outdoor patio and delicious menu of sandwiches, drinks and sweets. (2201 Palos Verdes Drive West)

After two successful years in Manhattan Beach, Pet Foods Market (7) expanded to their second location in PV, bringing with them hard-to-find pet products from both local and organic companies. Even dogs and cats love Lunada Bay! (716 Yarmouth Road) ●
